THE CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICANS OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, WILL MEET IN THE CITY OF RALEIGH, ON THE SEVENTH DAY OF JULY, 1880, FOR THE PURPOSE OF NOMINATING TWO ELECTORS AT-LARGE, AND STATE OFFICERS.

BY ORDER OF STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Late General News.

The London Times urges that steps be taken to open English domestic life, the real homes of England, to American visitors. It says that while when an Englishman visits America, houses are opened to him so that he goes back delighted with the country and its people, the average American sees nothing but the streets, parks, hotels, theatres and races. It adds that the more direct the intercourse between English and American homes the brighter will be the prospect of permanent inter-national good will, and that if the legion of travellers can study their blood relations of the mother country they will learn something more than from a ride in Hyde Park and a view of the Epsom races This is cousinly.

The N. Y. Herald in its financial article, which is authority, says that a remarkable feature of the stock market was the strength with which it faced the Reading suspension. There has been no serious decline outside the coal stocks, and no failures. This may be taken as an evidence that the hard pan in values has been nearly recached, and that, though prices may wear away somewhat more under the attrition of a summer's dullness, no great decline is to be feared.

The Demoines, Iowa, State Register complains that English houses are cutting all the black walnut of the west and exporting it to England, that Ohio and Indiana are now stripped of it, that the raid is now being made on Iowa; and if the price is not put up this valuable wood will soon be as scarce as mahogany.

They had a meeting of Irish men and women at Jones' Wood in New York the other day, at which were present Mrs. Parnell and her daughter, Miss Fannie Parnell, and at which the speakers were Mr. Michael Davitt, the great Irishman, John Dillon and James Redpath.

Col. Thomas M. Holt and John Gatling, Esq, have purchased the Raleigh News and united it with Hale's Weekly with Mr. Hale as editor, and with Edwards, Broughton & Co., as publishers.

John Spellman quotes Latin at Best.

Of the Democratic papers of the state 20 are for Jarvis, 17 for Fowle, 16 on the fence and 17 non-committal.

Mr Nichol, the Secretary of the National Hard Money League has been interviewed by the Inter-Ocean and says that Sherman likes Grant's ideas on the currency better than he does Blaine's, and that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot Sherman will certainly get the nomination.

Dr. James Freeman Clarke of Boston, preached at the Church of the Messiah, New York, the other Sunday, from the text, "and my feet shall stand in a large place." He said true liberty was self direction. The law of Jesus teaches perfect freedom, with God there is perfect freedom. Christianity each year casts away some of its errors. Bigotry fades away and humanity is lifted up. The Gospel, as Jesus lived it and taught it, can be compared to nothing so much as to the coming summer, which is rushing up everywhere, filling the brooks with gladsomeness and the air with a great advancing flood of fragrance.

Mr. W. W. Story has just finished the clay model of his statue of Prescott, the Revolutionary General. "In one hand," says the Courier Journal, "he holds a naked sword; the other is extended behind him as if to stay his impatient men, and he is just saying, 'Don't shoot until you can see the whites of their eyes!' The firm, resolute mouth, the light in the clear eyes—for it does seem to shine from the very clay—affect one like martial music."

Mrs. Mary Bayard Clarke of the Signal, writes from Kinston that they have a nice circulating library of the International Scientific Series, and some of the works of Darwin and Huxley, and other solid reading, as well as the usual amount of novels. In this respect they are ahead of Newberne, which only has a library of novels, and that but a small one, kept by Mrs. Susan Stanly at her book store.

LATEST NEWS.

That pure patriot "H. C." of the Times, it will have been noticed, has not become angry over the conduct of Mr. A. M. Jones, a collector of internal revenue, and one of the most influential Grant men around Chicago. Why does'nt "H. C." howl at this "official tool" of Sherman working for Grant? If Jones had been working for Sherman the conscientious and pure minded "H. C." would have trotted him out as a "political trickster." It makes a difference whose ox is gored.

Ex-Governor Chamberlain of South Carolina, attorney for the complainants in the South Carolina Railroad suit, won a victory before Chief Justice Waite and Judge Bond, holding Circuit Court at Charleston, and where the Chief Justice having decided in favor of the sale of the road in accordance with Gov. Chamberlain's argument, whereupon Chief Justice Waite remarked, at the close, that he never before heard a case which had been better prepared and more ably argued, and that it afforded him genuine gratification to preside over it.

Forty-five white persons have emigrated from Haywood and Henderson counties to Montana. They are said to be influential citizens. Senator Vance ought to get Voorhees' smelling committee to investigate them. What business have they to leave North Carolina?

Senator Matt. Ransom has secured $30,000 more to the Cape Fear improvements, making $70,000 in all. Good.

Those two Senators, Beck and Vorhees, both of whom did all they could to aid the rebellion, objected to Horace Maynard in executive session because he was, as they say, partisan in reconstruction. But Senator Bailey of Tennessee, a Democrat, vouched for his high character and integrity, and advocated his confirmation. Things have come to a pretty pass when a partriot like Maynard is objected to as unfitted for office by two ex rebels like Beck and Voorhees.

FROM WASHINGTON.

HOW THE DEMOCRATS ARE TRYING TO ADJOURN—WHAT A DEMOCRAT THINKS OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY—AN INDIVIDUAL OPINION ON NATIONAL POILTICS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 26, 1880.

A PROMISE MADE ONLY TO BE BROKEN.

The Democrats not only promised an early adjournment, but they went so far as to name the day. Like all of their recent promises it was only made to be broken. The business of Congress is not much farther advanced than it was ten days ago. Many of the members of both parties have gone home within the last ten days to attend to political matters, and the approaching Chicago convention will add to the number of absentees. A House officer said last Tuesday that over seventy members had left orders to have their mail sent to their respective homes for the remainder of the season. That means that they do not expect to return this session. At this rate the House will soon be without a quorum. The real work of the session will be prevented, and July will find a sergeant-at-arms hunting up absentees to make a quorum to adjourn. The way the Democratic majority has dandled and fuddled along in almost everything it has attempted to do is most clearly shown in the attempt made to adjourn to June 1st.

NO PLACE TO STORE THE SILVER DOLLARS.

The government is, by law, compelled to coin about 20,000,000 silver dollars each month. The people don't want them, and the pile has grown so great that the Treasury Department has no place in which to store them safely. Recently the Secretary of the Treasury asked for an appropriation to provide for the safe keeping of this mass of silver. The Democrats who passed the law compelling its coinage, who fixed the rate so that the dollar should contain only about 83 cents worth of silver and who have failed to provide any means to put their cheat of a dollar in circulation all voted solid against providing for the safe keeping of this money.

OUR LAST BOAT RACE.

Wilmington people are interested in boating matters, for, if my memory serves, you have some good amateur oarsmen. In my last letter I noticed the miserable farce we were treated to, in the Hanlan-Courteney race. That we might see some real skill at sculling our citizens raised a purse of $2,000 in order that Hanlan might be induced to stay and row with Riley, who is almost a first class sculler. The race came off yesterday afternoon. The same game was played a second time. In other words, "there was no race at all."—Riley's excuse is that he broke the spring of the foot-board of his boat at the end of the first mile, and so he was not able to make Hanlan row for even a good practice pull.

MY OWN OPINION IN POLITICS.

By the time this letter meets the eyes of the readers of the POST, the clans of the Republican party will have gathered at Chicago To tell what the real result will be is beyond the power of any living person. My own opinion is that General Grant will be nominated. The best man is JOHN SHERMAN. That is to say, if General Grant is not nominated, it seems to me that the Grant men will unite on Secretary Sherman.

I have heard a good ticket mentioned. It is Edmunds for President and Windom of Main for Vice-President. It is a strong combination. But all this is mere speculation. We shall see what we shall see.

CRAVEN COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Craven county met in convention at the court house in Newberne, on Thursday, the 20th inst., to elect two delegates to attend the Congressional Convention to be held at Goldsboro on the 1st day of July next, and also to elect delegates to attend the State Convention.

The Convention was temporarily organized by calling Col. Thomas Powers to the chair, and appointing John B. Willis, Secretary.

The entire roll of delegates (39) were present, every township and ward being fully represented.

E. R. Dudley was elected by acclamation permanent chairman, and on taking the chair delivered an able and eloquent address.

Edmund Bull was elected permanent Secretary.

The following persons were selected as delegates to the Congressional Convention for the 2nd District:—Robert Hancock, Jr., and John B. Willis; alternates, John S. Manix and P. J. Lee.

For the State Convention, Col. Thos. Powers, L. J. Moore, George H. White and E. B. Dudley; alternates, P. M. Draney, Henry James, William Pettiphir and Joseph Mumford.

Resolutions were adopted reaffirming Republican principles; endorsing Gen. Grant for President, and Senator Blaine as the second choice; endorsing Judge Settle for Vice-President; W. P. Bynum for Governor; Orlando Hubbs as a candidate for Congress of the 2nd District, and they also adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the present system of county government in North Carolina, is utterly subversive of the rights of the people, is the greatest political robbery ever practiced in this or any country, is the most damnable fraud ever devised or sanctioned by any political party, and calls for the unqualified condemnation of all who would bear the name of freemen, without regard to affiliation.

The Convention then adjourned amid great enthusiasm and a determination to do their part to carry the state and the 2nd district for the Republicans.

DUPLIN CONVENTION.

KENANSVILLE, Duplin Co., May 24th, 1880.

EDITOR POST:—There will be a Republican convention held at the court house in the town of Kenansville on June 26th, to appoint Delegates to the State and Third Congressional District Conventions. In accordance with the Republican rules each township will take notice and hold township conventions on the 12th of June. Townships are entitled to five delegates to the county conventions.

There was no interments in the Catholic Cemetery last week.

There were no interments in Bellevue Cemetery this week.

Congress has appropriated $65,000 to build a new Postoffice in this city.

There was one interment in Oakdale Cemetery this week—that of an adult.

In Pine Forest Cemetery there were nine interments—five children and four adults.

The appropriation for the work on the Cape Fear river has been increased $30,000 by Congress.

The Register of Deeds has issued but one marriage license this week, and that to a colored couple.

The revival at the First Baptist Church still continues. Twenty or more persons have been baptized so far.

An abstract of Dr. Wilson's sermon at the Presbyterian Assembly of the South at Charleston, will appear next week.

Two colored men were drowned off the schooner Thorles Thomas while lying at Moore's Inlet, Wrightsville Sound, on Saturday night last. Their bodies have not yet been recovered.

In accordance with an order issued by Mayor Fishblate, the market carts were moved from the old mud market to a stand on Front between Dock and Orange streets on yesterday morning.

Our drug stores are now supplied with "Malt Bitters," the new Food Medicine which has done so much good and comes to us so highly recommended. Try it. It may save you a heavy doctors' bill. 4t

DECORATION DAY.—To-morrow the usual honors will be paid to the Union Dead who repose in the National Cemetery. The procession in form will be dispensed with, but such persons as desire are invited to join in the ceremonies of the occasion.

A LOST CHILD FOUND.—Mr. John F. Garrell has received a letter from Rocky Point, written by Willis Davis, containing the information that he had found a child of Violet Jane Murphy's in the woods near that place, and that he had it at his home.

There is a through mail on the Wilmington & Weldon R. R, in addition to that arriving at night and leaving in the morning, which closes at 2:30 p. m. and is ready for delivery at 3:15 p. m. This is on the through freight and passenger train and is the train which brings the northern papers.

DEMOCRATIC ECONOMY.—At the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen a committee was appointed to solicit bids for making up the tax book for the city. At a meeting of the committee held Friday, the following bids were received: Col. J. G. Burr, $400; R. W. Chadwick, $350; J. Kent Brown, $294 50; E. H. McQuigg, $249. The contract was awarded to Brown, notwithstanding McQuigg's bid was $45 less than Brown's. Nobody doubts McQuigg's capacity to do the work.

HORNER SCHOOL AT OXFORD.—We acknowledge the courtesy of an invitation to be present at the anniversary of this excellent Institution on the 3rd of June next. The Rev. Dr. Geo. Patterson of this city, will deliver the anniversary address; Robert W. Winston, A. B., will address the Franklin Society; and Wm. S. Devane of this city, will deliver an oration. The latter takes the Orator's Medal, while Julian Wood takes the Essayist's Medal, and W. M. Parseley the Debater's Medal. We believe all these young gentlemen are residents of this city.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.—Wednesday morning last an attempt was made to break jail by George Myers and Joseph Campbell, the former now charged with burglary, and the latter with larceny. The men had broken out of the cell and attempted to gain their liberty by tearing up the floor. After getting up two or three planks they discovered that it was a double floor. They then decided to call jailor Howard and strike him down as he entered the door. As soon as he reached the door "Crazy Nathan" who was in the jail for safe keeping warned the jailor to look out as there was some one in the galleries. Howard saw some one standing behind the heater and fired in that direction, when the men ran. The door was then opened, and with the assistance of two policemen the men were captured and ironed.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

ROOMS NATIONAL MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION, WILMINGTON, N. C., May 30, 1880.

At a meeting of the National Memorial Association, it was decided not to have a formal procession and parade on the occasion of decorating the graves of the Union Dead at the National Cemetery this year. This course was determined upon for several reasons, among which are, that the Committee deem the occasion too sacred to warrant the indulgence of a noisy and boisterous demonstration, such as are usual in general parades, and that it is not an appropriate way of paying that respect and honor to the memery of the Nation's Dead for which these services were inaugurated.

The public are respectfully invited and requested to assemble, in such a manner as they may choose, at the National Cemetery, on east Market street, at 4 o'clock on Monday, the 31st day of May, where the following services will take place, which will be introduced by

COL. GEO. L. MABSON.

A RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.—Mr. Ezra Thomas, a well-known and respected citizen, and a staunch Republican of Brunswick county, accompanied by his daughter, started Tuesday morning last, with a horse and buggy to come to this city, and when on the causeway on Eagle Island, between the two ferries, the horse took fright and becoming unmanageable, ran away. Mr. Thomas managed to keep the animal in the road for sometime, but at last the horse got the better of the driver and sheered off from the road, by which both occupants of the buggy were thrown into the ditch with considerable force. Miss Thomas, we are pleased to state, escaped without any injury further than an excessive fright, but Mr. Tuomas received a severe bruise upon the arm, and a laceration of the forehead. Dr. F. W. Potter of this city, was called upon and rendered such professional assistance as the nature of the case required. Our information is to the effect that the injuries to Mr. Thomas, although very painful for the present, are not of a serious nature. We regret to have to chronicle this frightful accident, and congratulate Mr. Thomas and his fair daughter, on their lucky escape without any serious injury which might have proven fatal to one or both of them. We hope soon to hear of his entire recovery.

THE NORTH AMERICAN.—We own up and apologise for a neglect in not noticing the two last numbers of this great and progressing monthly. It is an intellectual work that is so full of the best brain-work of America, that we always desire to keep the public informed as to what matter it contains. The May number contains the following articles:—Gen. Grant and a Strong Government, by Hon. Juny S. Black; the Religion of all Sensible men, by Leslie Stephen; McLellan's Last Service to the Republic, by Geo. T. Curtis; Ralph Waldo Emerson, by F. H. Uunderwood; the Monroe Doctrine and the Isthmian Canal; and Recent Aistory and Biography, by A. Gustafson.

The June number contains:—Popular Fallacies about Russia, E. W. Stoughton; Divorces in New England, Dr. Nathan Allen; McLellan's Last Service to the Republic, third article: Has the Southern Pulpit failed, Rev. Dr. F. Shoup; Caste at West Point, Prof. P. S. Michie; Some Interesting Publications, M. W. Hazeltine.

We commend especially Dr. Allen's article Don ivorces in New England as startling Dr. Shoup's article on the Southern Pulpit, and Prof. Michies article on Caste at West Point, in the June number; and Judge Black's article on Grant, Mr. Stephen's article on Religion, and Fred. Underwood's article on Emerson in the May number.

"Lucie Rodcy," is the name of the New Society Novel, written by Henry Greville, author of "Dosia," "Saveli's Expiation," and "Sonia," which has been admirably translated into English, from the French, by Mary Neal Sherwood, and as Edmond About has just written a novel to prove the existence of domestic virtues in France, Americans who, as a rule, know little of France outside of Paris, are apt to deny the possibility of such. Let them, therefore, read "Lucie Rodey," Madame Greville's new romance, in which they will find the wife and mother "faithful unto death," though exposed to trials and temptations. "Lucie Rodey" teaches a great lesson, which will be felt even by those who read it with breathless interest merely for the sake of the story. It will be issued in a few days by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, in uniform style with "Dosia," "Sonia," "Saveli's Expiation," and other works by Henry Greville, published by this firm.

State vs. Susan Mary Frank, charged with assault and battery. Defendant recognized in the sum of $50 to appear at the next term.

State vs. Sarah Waddell, charged with infanticide. Not guilty.

State vs. George Myers, charged with burglary, the case, on motion of defendant's counsel, was continued to the next term of the Court.

State vs. Wm. Dabney. Former judgment stricken out, and judgment now that defendant be committed to the County House of Correction for thirty days is to the front.

NOTICE.

TOWN CREEK, BRUNSWICK Co., May 7th, 1880.

There will be a Republican Convention held at Smithville on the 7th day of June, 1880, to appoint delegates to the State and Congressional Conventions. In accordance with the Republican rules of the state, each Township will hold meetings on the 29th instant to elect delegates to the said county convention. ED. W. TAYLOR, Ch'mn. Rep. Ex. Com.

The truth is dawning upon the minds of the leading Republicans of the country that John Sherman is a strong and available man for the Presidency. His own state is solid for him. Others will fall in line before June 2nd.

THE WILMINGTON POST.

W. P. CANADAY, Ed'r & Prop'r.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 30, 1880.

In three days more the great Republican National Convention will meet at Chicago to select candidates for the future President and Vice-President of the United States. The Convention meets on Wednesday, June 2nd, at 12 o'clock, noon.

The versatile Col. Thos. B. Keogh is in the interview business again. He gives Grant 18 out of 20 delegates, and it goes out to the country as Keogh's judgment. There is about as much truth in this last estimate as there was in Keogh's former statement that this state was solid for Grant.

We notice that some of the Jarvis papers are writhing and squirming over the fact that the Governor in the legislature of 1868 voted for the bill confirming the special tax bonds. Some are denying it. If they will look in House Journal 1868-'69, pages 91-92-93 96 and 97, they will find out all about it.

That prodigious truth-teller, the Raleigh correspondent of the Times, who on the 29th of last January, so distinguished himself by stating as facts things that were not true, is at his favorite occupation again. He claims seven of our delegates for Grant. Keogh has put a thousand miles between himself and the correspondent, so he can't bulldoze him into stating the maudlin hallucination that Grant will carry eighteen out of the twenty.

It is evident that the Grant men are already at Chicago with money to buy up delegates. This leaks out in the prefatatory statement of the notorious "H. C." of the Times, who is the head devil and sore-head in opposition to Mr. Sherman. He is trying to prepare the public mind for that revolt of the colored delegates from the south which they intend to accomplish by money. It will operate about as well probably as Keogh's indignation meeting scheme did in North Carolina.

Our dearly beloved Democratic patriots of Columbus county have committed a ludicrous blunder in the resolution recommending Col. H. B. Short for Lt.-Governor. They inform the public that "should the mantle of Chief Magistrate be cast upon him during his term of office, we know of no man who would more gracefully wear it." We all know that it is possible for a Governor to die, or be impeached, or be promoted, but it has never before been the fashion to say so by resolution. After this uncouth slurring of the possible future Democratic Governor, and after snubbing Judge A. A. McKoy by informing him that he would please remain on the bench through his whole term, and not bother them by attempting to go to Congress, they gave a clean bill of health to Maj. C. M. Stedman for Congress, and instructed their delegates to vote for him. After this clumsy attempt at suaviter in modo they managed to adjourn.

The Almance Gleaner is anxious to have a monument erected on the field where the regulators fought Governor Tyron's forces in Alamance. It is not stated in honor of whom the monument is to be erected. May be it is to be the event itself. Certainly not to David Fanning. While we have always had the idea that the regulators had in the main the right of it, we certainly would not subscribe to build a monument against Maurice Moore, or any of the others who went up to Alamance to help Gov. Tryon in that "artillery company of sailors raised at Wilmington, with one of the brass field pieces, and six half-swivel guns," and commanded by "General Waddell," with 580 men besides. There were some rough fellows among those regulators. A fellow named Hamilton, a regulator, cried out to the crowd, "what business has Maurice Moore to be a judge? He was no judge; he was not appointed by the King. He nor Henderson neither. * * * * It was the best thing that could be done for the country, for now we shall be forced to kill all the clerks and lawyers. And I'll be damned, if they are not all put to death." This seems to be one of the fellows who as the Gleaner says had caused Alamance to take "its place in history to illustrate the inherent love of justice and freedom which has ever distinguished North Carolina, whether as a colony or a state."

The Solicitor of the Treasury will offer at auction, next Tuesday, the valuable water-power at Harper's Ferry, together with the old engine house in which John Brown barricaded himself in 1853, and the ruins of the old musket and rifle works, arsenal, and other buildings, destroyed on the approach of the Confederate forces at the beginning of the war.

The Concord Register says of Cabarrus county: The Republican organization in this county is complete. It has been done quietly but thoroughly. They won't elect any "Gnashionals," this year, but if the Democrats don't close ranks and heal breaches, they will elect their own ticket.

CHICAGO.

Nearly all of our North Carolina delegation will have reached Chicago before the issue of this paper, and have occupied their quarters at the Sherman House. They will undoubtedly stand there, 16 for Sherman, and 4 for Grant. The names of the delegates are, at large: William P. Canaday, Rufus Barringer, James H. Harriss and D. H. Starbuck. Palemon John and S. T. Carrow, 1st District; I. B. Abbott and C. Faison, 2nd District; O. H. Blocker and Geo. W. Price, jr., 3rd District; Isaac J. Young and S. Ellison, 4th District; Thos. B. Keogh and J. C. Hardin, 5th District; J. J. Mott and C. Cooper, 6th District; W. R. Myers and O. G. Spear, 7th District; and W. W. Wallace and D. C. Pearson, 8th District.

The vote in the Convention will, in our opinion, vary a good deal from the estimates on the first ballot, owing to the looseness of the effect of the instruction, where the whole delegations have been counted for one man. These variations will apply to more states than most people estimate.

It is our opinion that Mr. Sherman will go in on the first vote with more strength than has been estimated. If he does, he will hold the balance between Blaine and Grant. It has been whispered for a few days past that if Sherman shows the strength which his friends expect on the first ballot, that Don Cameron will give him what support he can from Pennsylvania. At all events it is not likely that a nomination will be made without several votings.

Nothing but the most audacious bulldozing on the part of Grant's friends can force an immediate nomination. That every possible means of this kind will be resorted to at the outset by Grant's supporters is generally believed by those who have made themselves familiar with the progress of the canvass. How much the minds of a tumultuous body like a National Convention are influenced by outside pressure, by the demonstrations of the upper circles in a packed opera house, by parliamentary tactics and the impulses of the moment, most people who have witnessed the movements of such bodies, are aware. How suddenly Polk and Pierce emerged into prominence as against the old Democratic leaders, how quickly Webster and Clay stepped to the rear before the clamors which roared in the streets of Philadelphia for Gen. Zachary Taylor, how suddenly Seward was overturned before the wild enthusiasm for Abraham Lincoln, and how easily Hayes superseded Blaine and others in 1876, have become matters of history.

History repeats itself. The aspirations and anxieties of half a century ago are being repeated to-day. The bitterness of Cass, Clay, Webster and Calhoun are born again to-day in the anxieties of persons who then were unknown, and babies now harmless in the cradle will be rushing to a future Chicago fifty years hence, their eyes fiery and their brains hot in the same kind of struggles. Those of us who imagine that this is the supreme occasion now, that all things will go to ruin if their opinions are not accepted by the people, may on reflection be convinced that they themselves are but children of a larger growth, living over the ambitions, hallucinations, and follies of bygone centuries, and that while the nation will be immutable and get on in the shadow of future struggles like these, the human race will, including politicians and aspirants, be indulging in about the same sort eccentricities, vascillations, defeats, and triumphs. Let us unharness for a few days our foaming steeds.

CORRUPTION IN THE TEXAS PACIFIC.

A Mr. George is pushing an investigation before the House Committee on Pacific Railroads in regard to corruption in legislation in Congress in that road. He says that he is ready at a moments' notice to go upon the witness stand and prove by documents and records everything he charges. The Times Washington correspondent says:

Mr. George is fighting the Texas Pacific. He represents a portion of Texas bitterly opposed to the road, and so he has much to gain in case he succeeds in this investigation. Gen. Newell is actuated by a desire to punish the Texas Pacific for a refusal to pay his claim. Three years ago all of the facts in Newell's possession became known to George, but he has never had any claim upon the proofs until very recently. Newell went with George and deposited all of the documents in the case in a bank in this city, from which they cannot be taken except upon the joint personal order of both. These precautions have been taken by George to protect himself. In a city where the railroads of the country concentrate powerful and unscrupulous agents, the utmost care and caution are dictated by common prudence.

Mr. George is so strongly fortified that he can force an investigation, and he will push the fighting next week. He does not desire to publish in advance any of the facts charged by him, as he does not want any committee to be able to say that he did not give them the first chance. Mr. George will not consent to any secret investigation. He stands ready to go upon the witness stand at any time and prove all that he says, and when he does he wishes the public to have the advantage of it. So greatly has Mr. George stirred up matters that Mr. Bond, the present Vice-President of the Texas Pacific and its active manager, has seen fit to devote a good deal of attention to him in a local paper here.

A QUESTION FOR THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The monstrous doctrine assumed by the Republican State Convention of Illinois, led by Senator John A. Logan, that a general convention of a state has the power to select the delegates from the Congressional Districts, is one of the first questions to be decided by the National Convention at Chicago. That arrogant body, the Illinois State Convention, had the presumption to elect delegates not only from those who had not elected but from ten of the Congressional Districts in Illinois, which had already elected their delegates. Such arrogant assumption of power has never before been assumed in any state. The custom is uniform in all the states for either a state convention or some authority equivalent to a state committee to select the delegates at large, and either the district conventions or committees to select the delegates from districts. Sometimes the state convention's seperate into districts and each selects their own delegates. In this state this year, instead of calling a state convention, which would have been inconvinient on account of the size of the state, by common consent the state committee selected the delegates at large, and, as it happened, all the delegates from the districts were selected by the district committees. Any district had the choice to have a convention or not, as they pleased.

But the theory adopted by the Illinois convention is a gross outrage on the rights of the district, and Logan and his follows have subjected themselves to grave inculpations.

A MUDDLE IN BRUNSWICK.

And now our Democratic friends in Brunswick are at logger-heads. At their county convention they snubbed Dr. W. G. Curtis, a candidate for chairman, because he was not supporting Judge McKoy for Congress, and elected Mr. Samuel R. Chinnis. "A Card" which appeared in the Evening Review, signed by John D. Bellamy, Jr., W. B. McKoy and E. H. King, avers that,

"When Mr. George H. Bellamy moved that the choice of the convention as between Maj. Stedman and McKoy should be ascertained, a great deal of noise and confusion ensued, four men talking at the same time, and in the midst of this Babel the motion that the chair appoint delegates was put and the negative vote was not even taken.

In this way a snap judgment was taken very much to the disgust of those desiring fair play.

Dr. Curtis was then called on to calm the excitement, which was intense and disgraceful. He (Dr. C.) moved that the convention adjourn to meet at a future time and place (for reasons already given in the published accounts.) Dr. Curtis' motion was put in a garbled manner, and the McKoy men despairing of fair play withdrew.

Immediately on the withdrawal the undersigned were requested to make the count of both sides and counted fifth-seven in the McKoy party, all citizens of Brunswick county, and sixty-three in the Stedman party, amongst whom whom were Messrs. Stedman, Darby, Griffith, Gore and others, not voters. We believe that previous to Major Stedman's arrival on the ground we had a large majority, and that even his presence did not much affect the status of the McKoy side, and for an endorsement of this paper we refer to any fair minded, unprejudiced man on the ground at the time."

Exactly in what condition this muddle leaves the delegation from Brunswick to the Democratic Congressional Convention, it is impossible to say. It reminds us very much of the old game of snapping coppers on the basis of, "heads I win—tails you lose."

Or rather it may be compared to the dinner of turkey and crow given by a white man to an Indian. Said the white man to the Indian, "shall I take turkey and you crow? or will you take crow and I turkey?" The Indian was heard to observe that turkey wasn't said to him at all.

A GREAT CRASH.

The failure of that immense combination, the "Philadelphia and Reading Railroad" and the "Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company," last week promises to be one of the great financial sensations of the time. This vast combination owns and holds under lease 892 miles of road and 1,774 miles of track. The total value of its property assets of all kinds has been estimated at about $125,000,000. There is piled upon the concerns a debt of nearly $60,000,000. Under the pressure of several millions of maturing coupons, bonds and notes the great giant broke down spreading such dismay at the financial centres that the stocks and bonds of the two corporations tumbled from 23 to 13 in one afternoon. This great disaster is due in a large measure to the disordered condition of the coal interests, and the attempt of these two corporations to control it in certain localities. It is said that the combination has been shaky for several years but its failure now will undoubtedly affect many other interests.

The Norfolk Day Book gives the following as a sign of what may be expected in old Virginia next fall: We had the pleasure last evening of meeting our friend Capt. Charles A. Causey, late clerk of the Senate, and now of the Suffolk Examiner. He has been in ill health for some time past, but is improving now. He says that the Readjusters in Nansemond will roll up 2,000 majority in the next election.

Kellogg's case has been shelved by common consent, as was Fitz John Porter's.

THE SENATE CONCOCTING FRAUD.

On Tuesday the 26th Mr. Bayard's bill for turning out all the Supervisors of Election and having their successors appointed by the President and confirmed by the senate was up, and the debate was participated in by Mr Hoar, Mr. Bayard, Carpenter, Edmunds, Teller, Hampton, Butler, Thurman and Conkling. Mr. Hoar castigated Hampton and Butler on the subject of frauds in South Carolina and tissue ballots, and Hampton and Butler declared that tissue ballots were a Republican invention, but admitted that they had been used by the Democrats of Charleston. They also asserted that the colored voters of the south were fond of Democratic rule, and that tens of thousands of them were good Democrats. Mr. Hoar was told that his state should have a smaller number of Representatives, because 136,000 of its adult male inhabitants were disfranchised by an educational qualification.

But the atrocity of southern frauds was pressed home upon the Democrats with facts which they could not deny. We copy the account of the Times:

The great sensation of the day was to come. At 5 o'clock, Mr. Voorhees sprang into the arena with a very red face, and in a high, shrill tone commanded the Republicans to name the subject which, according to Mr. Teller's assertion, the Democrats had been afraid to discuss. The faces of his fellow Democrats grew long, while the amused Republicans gathered around him in order that they might not lose any part of the exhibition. The excited Senator repeated his demand again and again, and shook his fist wildly in the air. "No set of men," he cried, "should charge the Democrats with cowardice and go unchallenged," "Name the subjects," be cried to Senator Conkling. "Life is too short," replied that Senator. It was apparent that Mr. Voorhees was so affected by anger or some other irritant that he would not submit to ordinary argument, but at last Mr. Edmunds, over whose head he was shaking his fist, replied that upon the Marshals, rider and other measures the Democrats have been dumb oysters that had been dead for weeks. Mr. Conkling suggested the currency question, and this had the effect upon Mr. Voorhees that a red rag has on a mad bull. "Don't you want to discuss the third term?" he cried. Mr. Conkling replied that no one was in a delirium of anxiety about a third term except those who were longing for a first term, and at this all eyes were turned upon David Davis, who was smoking in the doorway of the cloak-room. Mr. Voorhees then declared that Mr. Conkling had never dared to express an opinion on the currency question, and Mr. Conkling, in a dignified manner, replied that his vote had been recorded unmistakably upon all financial questions, and that he had never held but one position in regard to them. When Mr. Voorhees declared that he would turn his attention to the bill, there was a sigh of relief on the Democratic side. After he had spoken for a few minutes upon the bill Mr. Bayard moved to aojourn, and adjournment prevented the Senator from Indiana from any further exhibition.

It had been the intention of the Democrats to sit into the night, for the purpose of reaching a vote, but the possibility that Mr. Voorhees would again take the floor led them to abandon this intention and postpone the conclusion of the debate until to-morrow. The scene in the Senate which followed Mr. Voorhees's entrance would be difficult to describe, and will not soon be forgotten.

LIVELY JOURNALISM.

The Raleigh Evening Post, Major Hearne, is only a little folio daily, 15½ inches by 10½, but it bristles all over with sprightliness, and sharp hits, and truth telling, and plain words. It says Buxton would be hard to beat, that Fowle will beat Jarvis in the Convention by 300 majority, that Col. Holt is only a soft-handed son of toil, and gives the poor, overlooked, discarded, transmontane "Hon. James L. Robinson," a look, and pitches in right and left to our brave "army corps divisions, and brigades of generals, regiments of colonels, battalions of majors, and companies of post captains, throws flings at Mr. Best, lifts "one Randolph A. Shotwell" loftily on its Herculean shoulders for State Auditor, as Atlas did the globe, and pokes fun at the sleepy gravity of the Observer.

A writer in the Observer reviews the 1868-'69 legislative record of Representative Jarvis, and shows by reference to the House journals and laws that he voted for the special tax bonds and the act which placed them in the hands of Swepson, Littlefield, Pickerell & Co. We presume nobody would have referred to this record, had not some super-serviceable friends attempted to lay claim to services in behalf of the people which were not performed in the way stated.

* * * * * * *

The extra session was called—the sale of the road urged and forced through under the combined influence of the railroad corporations which control Gov. Jarvis and Colonel Thomas M. Holt,—for no higher object or purpose than to give these gentlemen the nomination for Governor and Lieutenant Governor. With them it was all to gain and nothing to lose, and their only hope now lies, where it lay then, in their railway allies, who reap the harvest of their reward by their men they place and continue in office.

And of Col. Thomas M. Holt it writes in the following high style of derision, which we quote:

He (Holt) has the confidence of the public as much so as any man yet spoken of for a position on the state ticket.—Patriot.

Did not look like it when, as the regular Democratic nominee in 1878, for Senator from Alamance and Guilford, he was beaten out of his boots in his own home by the independent candidate, Mr. Caldwell, from Guilford, while Senator Scales, of Guilford, carried Alamance like a flash, and his own county, too. Don't look much like the people's confidence, that. And why was Holt thus beat? Will the Patriot say.

NORTH CAROLINA TO LIBERIA.

In the Herald we find an account of one hundred colored people from Arkansas and North Carolina who are about to sail on the ship Liberia to the African Republic, who were paying their passage with their own money. Among them the Herald writer describes an old cold colored man from Newberne named Decatur Bennett, of whom he says:—

Early in the afternoon there were a number of a colored people on the dock, and among them was a man of striking appearance. He was tall and erect, and hair as white as snow, a black skin, an intelligent eye that twinkled with humor and as ready a tongue as one would expect to find in the most dapper city darkey. Such was Decatur Bennett, of Newberne, N. C., who, with his young wife and six boys is at seventy years of age going to establish a home in Africa. He was cool and self-opossessed and talked with several spruce colored men, who appeared to be on the dock to argue against Liberia, with much ease and fluency. His points were well taken and his logic conclusive. He was a very superior man of his kind, and, even as old as he is, may make his mark in the new Republic.

"You are a pretty old man," said the writer, "to leave your country for a new and untried one."

"Yes, sir, I am seventy years old, but I want a place for my boys," waving his hand toward them.

"You think, then, you will get along in Liberia?"

"Oh, yes sir, I hope so!"

"Say, old man," broke in a young and impudent colored fellow who was standing by; "I have been all over this country and I don't want any better. This is the finest country in all the world."

"Have you ever been in Newberne, N. C.?" quietly asked the old man.

"I have been in Liberia anyhow, and I know you won't like it there."

"Umph" (with a very peculiar emphasis.)

"No, you won't."

"Why?"

"What will you get to eat?"

"Umph" (contemptuously.)

"The white people have plenty of money, and if they don't like it they can come back. What will you do if you don't like it?"

"Come back, too."

"There are no ploughs out there, and no horses, and nothing to plough with,"

"Umph" (thoughtfully.)

"There are no ploughs nearer than England, and that is a very long way off. What are you going to do for ploughs?"

"Send and get them."

Questions and and answers like these were bandied for more than an hour, but the old man was never nonplussed and had the best of every argument.

A Petulant Statesman.

From the Pall Mall Gazette.

The defeat of Lord Beaconsfield's government not only broke down Prince Bismarck's combinations in foreign policy, but has also encouraged the Liberals, as well as the Chancellor's other opponents in Germany to lift up their heads. One defeat has followed hard upon another at home. The Emperor would not permit Prince Bismarck to pursue an adventurous policy abroad, and his attack upon the great cities of Hamburg and Bremen, has roused against him the hostility of a class with which he has hitherto managed to keep on good terms. Nor is this all; his recent action in St. Petersburg and in Paris has not been followed with its wonted success. Strange as it may seem, the leading minds in France are no more willing to give the Junker statesman credit for straightforwardness than is the combination which is day by day gaining power in Russia. Thus, for once the Chancellor is unable to play off his masterly external management against his notorious incapacity in domestic affairs. What will be the result of all this it is, of course, impossible to say; but the speech which Prince Bismarck has just delivered displays an amount of irritation which almost looks like conscious weakness. To consider themselves indispensable is a failing even of some powerful minds; and the fate of Thiers ought never to be forgotten by statesmen who are inclined to trade upon their necessity to their country. Certain it is, at any rate, that of late Prince Bismarck's petulance has not produced the effect which it did on former occasions.

An unprecedented event in the history of medical science is reported here. Mrs. Ballard, wife of a Baltimore coachmaker, gave birth to a female child of unusual size. Upon the reports of the midwife a physician was called, and the fact was established that a second child was present—a case of abdominal or extra uterine pregnancy. The patient was removed to Vincent's Hospital, and on Tuesday the operation of Cæsarian section was performed by Dr. H. P. C. Wilson, assisted by Drs. Chatard, Allan P. Smith, W. P. Howard, and others, and a large boy was taken from among the viscera. Both children are living and the mother is doing well. The case will attract great attention throughout the medical world.

An Ancient Jutland Tomb.

From the Pall Mall Gazette.

Our correspondent at Copenhagen writes: "An interesting and probably unique discovery has been made close to the Town of Randers, in Jutland, of a grave, dating probably from the sixth or seventh century, containing the remains of a woman who had been buried in her richest attire, it being still possible to trace the dress, which had been interwoven with gold thread. Across the chest were laid two bands with a kind of gold lace, on the top of which again were laid some ornaments composed of colored glass beads, some having an outer shell of gold leaf, and several cut like diamonds, as well as a small perforated silver coin. To the left of the body was found a knife, a pair of scissors, a small whetstone, (for needles,) and a small glass cup, which was broken in pieces. In the tomb was also found the remains of a wooden pail with iron bands, which had contained the food supposed necessary to support the deceased on her journey to Hades. This discovery affords another proof of the exceptionally high position occupied by the women in Scandinavia during heathen times in comparison with nearly all other heathen countries. The body had evidently originally been inclosed in a coffin of rough oaken planks. Great interest is taken in the scientific examination of the silver coin, by which the actual period may be at least approximately ascertained."

It has been claimed by several writers that more than one of the so-called "annual rings" of trees may be formed in a single season, but the question has never been conclusively settled. The observations of Mr. L. Kny, in England last year seem to show that two rings may be formed in the small branches of trees during a season, but that the interruption of growth in summer, causing the division of these rings, is too slight to extend to the trunks. Consequently, it may be considered that the number of concentric rings of wood in the trunks of trees represents very nearly their actual age in years.

A school for the education of idiots has been in operation in Holland for twenty-five years, with encouraging results. Of the total 417 pupils entered upon its register since 1855, forty-three have gone directly into service or adopted a trade, while twenty-five others have been discharged in a greatly improved condition.

AFFAIRS IN PENDER.

DEAR POST:—No doubt you and the many readers of your valuable paper will not in the least object to hearing from this section of the country about the condition of farming, politics, &c. The colored people of this section of Pender is paying their attention more to farming, making their bread, and tending less turpentine than they have since freedom. We are tired selling ourselves to the country merchant for our weekly rations. We will remain poor just so long as we dip turpentine and trade at counrty stores, paying a very large, say 100 per cent above your city prices, and we have resolved to go to our mother earth for our living. Experience. I tended a task of turpentine (30 barrels) in 1878, and made 81 barrels of dip turpentine and 45 barrels of hard, and that year I made no crop, and at the end of the year I sold my crop of turpentine and it did not buy provisions enough for my family the next year. And last year I made a good farm and now I have meat and bread enough to last my family until I gather this fall.

The crops in this section are looking very nice. We look forward to a fine harvest this fall. But while attending to our farms we must keep a lookout for our country's good—electing good men to office that can bond and will do their duty when they get in office. If it is not against the rules of your most valuable paper I will suggest two names, one for Congress from this district and one for the office of Register of deeds of this county. We are for Hon. W. P. Canaday first, last and at all times, to fill that honored position for which he is fully capable and worthy of filling. Pender will go strong for him at the convention and polls. You can score one for Pender. The present Register of this county, it is well known has not come up to the requirements fo the law in settling up with the county, and now a rank Democrat has charge of the office, and I'll suggest the name of Gratlan Williams, Esq., of Lincoln township, to fill the office of Register of Deeds. And no doubt you would agree with us if you knew Mr. Williams as well as we do. He is a Democrat from principle, I know. He is not one of those fire eating Democrats; he is a Magistrate appointed by the Democratic legislature, and no county in the state has a better Magistrate than he is.

He is ready and willing at all times to help and advise with our race when they are so unfortunate as to get into trouble. He is one Democrat that we can and will trust in that office. There is no question about the bond. I think that he would not have any trouble about that. He can give it in one day easy. A great deal of credit is due to Mr. Williams for the manly and justly course he has taken for the past three years in his office as Magistrate. He has not sent but one "nigger to jail" during his three years in office, and that was that notorious Wentworth, alias Dunell who got about $62 out of the colored race in this township under false pretense. I could say more about him but I'll wait until the next. If we can get Mr. Gratlan Williams and Hon. W. P. Canaday in those two offices the people may rest satisfied that they are in good hands. Lets hear from other sections of Pender, and you, Mr. Editor, as to Mr. Williams—Republicans electing a Democrat.

ONSLOW COUNTY CONVENTION.

In accordance with a call issued by the Executive Committee, the Republicans of Onslow county assembled in mass-meeting at Jacksonville, May 11, and was called to order by the chairman of said committee.

On motion, Mr. E. B. Sanders was called to the chair, who explained the object of the meeting.

On motion, Mr. T. E. Gilman was requested to act as Secretary.

The convention being organized, a resolution was offered empowering the chairman to appoint an executive committee consisting of three members, and that said committee be vested with power to act upon all matters pertaining to the nominating or endorsing of candidates for county officers; subject, however, to the action of any convention of the party thereafter assembled. Carried.

On motion of Mr. James Laughlin, Mr. T. E. Gilman and Mr. E. B. Sanders, were elected delegates to the State Convention, which convenes at Raleigh, July 7th.

On motion, said delegates were instructed to cast their votes for Judge R. P. Buxton for Governor.

A resolution was introduced empowering the chair to appoint the delegates to the Congressional District Convention, which convenes at a time and place now unknown, and that those delegates be and are instructed to cast their votes for Hon. W. P. Canaday, as the choice of this county for the Congressional honors of this district. Adopted.

The chair then proceeded to announce the names of the gentleman appointed to compose the county executive committee, and also delegates to the Congressional District Convention, which are as follows:

Executive Committee — Moses P. Hawkins, C. E. Vose and T. E. Gilman.

On motion, that a copy of the proceedings of this meeting be transmitted to the WILMINGTON POST, with the request that they be published, was also carried.

Mr. E. A. Smith of Swansboro, being called upon addressed the meeting in his usual forcible style.

No further business being reported the meeting adjourned.

E. B. SANDERS, Chairman.

T. E. GILMAN, Secretary.

HALIFAX AFFAIRS.

HALIFAX COUNTY,
May 24th, 1880.

EDITOR POST:

DEAR SIR—Your valuable paper is highly prized in this section, and its manly criticisms cannot fail to increase its popularity with all classes of people.

The Republicans of this section are determined to use every honorable means to elect our national and state tickets; believing as they do, that the respective conventions will nominate standard bearers worthy of the great principles they proclaim—men whose hearts will ever swell the chorus of the Union and impartial justice to all men.

Upon a platform making the Union and the Constitution equal laws for all men, the high and the low, the rich and the poor, the black and the white, fraternal feelings amongst the people, honest money for the laborer and for the capitalist, economy in expenditures of the government, and the freedom of elections, is broad enough and strong enough for all to stand upon under the shadow of the Star-Spangled Banner.

I notice that the name of our distinguished countyman, John A. Moore, has been suggested in several papers for Attorney General, and no selection that could be made would better suit our people; but the writer has interviewed Mr. Moore, and is authorized to say that he is not a candidate for the nomination for Attorney General, and that his name will not go before the Convention.

The mistake no doubt arose from the fact that the name of A. M. Moore of Chowan county, had been mentioned for the same position.

Either of these gentlemen would poll the full vote of Halifax.

Our people are much pleased with Judge Buxton, and would be glad to see him placed in the Executive chair.

Our county convention to send delegates to the State and Congressional Conventions meets on the 19th of June and the result will be reported to your paper by a

COLUMBUS.

Necessity for Information—The Columbus Oligarchy at Whiteville—How to Oust It—People not Educated—Mother Wit—Sherman, Buxton and Canaday.

LEBAN N,
COLUMBUS CO., N. C.,
May 25th, 1880.

EDITOR POST:

SIR—As we are on the eve of a great political campaign, fraught with weal or woe to the people not only of North Carolina, but of the whole United States, it would be well for the Republican party to post itself thoroughly at the outset, as to the feelings and condition of the masses of the people in the different counties of our state, in order that we may be able, at the proper time, to offer adequate remedies for the many and grievous political evils fastened on the body politic by that arch-deceiver—Democracy.

So far as Columbus is concerned, it has been one of the great strong-holds of Democracy, controlled heretofore by a little "ring" or "clique," consisting of some half-dozen Democrats, so-called, living at Whiteville, our county seat. Manipulating nominating conventions, with no one to say them nay, they have managed to gobble up and enjoy all the offices of profit and trust in the county for many years, indeed, until they appear to believe those positions theirs by inheritance, and they have waxed so great and powerful, that it would doubtless be a matter of some difficulty to tell which it is, did they make the Lord, or did the Lord make them?

The masses of our people, unfortunately for themselves, are not well educated, and mainly to this is attributable the condition of affairs above described, and our people not being independent thinkers, our little Whiteville clique has found it plain and easy sailing heretofore.

But if our people are not so well educated as they might be, most of them are not wanting in that native shrewdness usually termed "mother wit," and they see that they are being made "hewers of wood and drawers of water," for a little "ring" of individuals who care nothing for them, except in so far as they can be made useful as stepping stones to place and power. This being the case let the Republican party nominate its best and most competent men for office; let Columbus county be thoroughly canvassed by Republican speakers, competent to preach the doctrines of their party pure and undefiled, and to show up Democracy in its true colors; its hollowness and pretence; its humbug and want of all those elements or principles that should recommend a political party to the confidence of the people.

Let this be done, and Columbus will be a Democratic strong-hold no more forever, and if we do not carry the county at the next election, we will be sure to get quite a respectable vote for our candidates for Governor, State officers and member of Congress, and drive the entering wedge of the total overthrow and defeat of the Whiteville oligarchy a year or two hence—a consummation most devoutly to be prayed for.

But regardless of the little county of Columbus, while we would like to see her disinthralled, with John Sherman of Ohio, as our national standard-bearer, the noble Buxton as our candidate for Governor, and Canaday for Congress, we can and will sweep the state, and rout the enemy, "horse, foot and dragoons." Yours,

BE. A.

New Orleans Lawlessness.

New Orleans, May 12.—Referring to the general complaint of inefficiency and corruption of the City Police, and the general prevalence of crime in consequence, the following letter is given, received to day by Mayor Patton through Gov. Wiltz:

Washington, March 29, 1860.

SIR—In accordance with an instruction which I have received from the Marquis of Salisbury, I have the honor to invite the attention of the Government of the United States to a representation which has been made by a committee of Lloyds with regard to the frequent losses by fire of cotton-laden ships, which occur at ports of the United States, especially at Charleston and New Orleans, such disasters occurring generally while the vessels are still in port and fully loaded. Lloyd's agents who have been appealed to in the matter, attribute those fires, especially at Charleston and New Orleans, to incendiarism or gross carelessness, and the committee have asked that the attention of the authorities of the United States may be called to the frequency of these fires, which cause a great loss of property on both sides of the ocean. I have, &c.,

EDWARD THORNTON.

We find the following in the Baltimore Sun: "Gen. Joseph E. Johnston says that he owes much of the activity and vigor of his old age to an out-door life, and he finds the duties of a member of Congress too confining. Nor has he any taste for them, though during his brief service he has been popular with both parties. He will not accept a re-nomination, and will probably go back to his business in Richmond."

Republican State Convention.

ROOMS REPUBLICAN STATE EX. COM.
RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 20, 1880.

The next Republican State Convention of North Carolina, for the nomination of Governor and other State Officers, and Presidential Electors at large, will be held at the City of Raleigh, on WEDNESDAY, JULY 7TH, 1880, at 12 o'clock, noon; and will consist of delegates from each county equal to twice the number of its Representatives in the House branch of the General Assembly.

C. W. GRANDY, Chairm'n.
F. M. SORRELL, Secretary.

Republican National Convention.

A National Convention of the Republican party will meet at Chicago, on Wednesday, the 2nd day of June next, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice-President at the next election. Republicans, and all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominees of the party, are invited to choose two delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each state, two from each Territory, and two from the District of Columbia, to represent them in the Convention.

J. D. CAMERON, Chairman.
THOMAS B. KEOGH, Secretary.

Second Congressional District Convention—Rooms Republican Executive Committee, Second District of North Carolina—Goldsboro, N C. March 24th, 1880.

The Republican Convention for the Second Congressional District of North Carolina, will be held at Goldsboro, on the 1st day of July, 1880, at 12 o'clock m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a Republican candidate to represent this district in the Forty-seventh Congress of the United States, and to nominate a Presidential Elector upon the Republican ticket, and for the transaction of such other business as may be necessary. Delegates entitled to a seat and vote in the convention must be regularly delegated by a county convention called by their several county committees. The following are the counties composing the Congressional District, with the number of delegates and alternates to which each is entitled:

Counties	Delegates.	Alternates.
Craven,	2	2
Edgecombe,	2	2
Greene,	1	1
Halifax,	2	2
Jones,	1	1
Lenoir,	1	1
Northampton,	1	1
Warren,	2	2
Wayne,	2	2
Wilson,	1	1

The county committees, of the above named counties, are requested to call a county convention in time to insure their counties being represented in the District Convention.

By order of the Republican Executive Committee.

OLANDO HUBBS, Chairman.
E. E. SMITH, Secretary.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE GENUINE
D. McLANE'S
Celebrated American
WORM SPECIFIC OR

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

DR. C. McLANE'S

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—The Board of Aldermen met in adjourned session last Wednesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock p. m. Present—Mayor Fishblate, and Aldermen Myers, Bowden, VonGlahn, Vollers, Foster, King, Lowrey and Hill.

The Mayor stated that he had called the Board together subject to adjournment, and on motion the reading of the minutes was dispensed with and the General Tax Ordinance was taken up and passed.

[The rate of taxation on real and personal property is 1¾ per cent, being the same as last year:]

Alderman Foster offered a resolution to appoint a committee on city fire insurance.

The dog ordinance was re-enacted, to take effect on the 10th prox.

Alderman Foster moved that the Mayor advertise for bids from competent persons to make up the tax book and deliver the same complete to the city clerk.

Alderman Myers moved to amend so that the contract be given to Col. J. G. Burr at his bid—$400; he having already the state and county lists to take. This motion was lost and Alderman Foster's adopted.

Aldermen Myers and King, with the Mayor as Chairman, were appointed a committee to receive the bids and act on the same.

The Committee on Fire Department were instructed to advertise for bids for the erection of a fire alarm belfry on the City Hall, and report at next meeting.

Alderman Foster moved that the cattle ordinance be amended so as to limit the enforcement of the same to the territory bounded by Red Cross, Seventh and Castle streets and the river. Adopted.

Alderman King offered the following resolution, which provoked a long discussion, Aldermen Myers and King favoring, and Aldermen Bowden and Foster opposing its adoption:

WHEREAS, In justice to the Wilmington Market Company, who have erected a handsome and airy market, with the necessary sheds for the protection of the market carts, both vegetable and fish, and as they propose to grant to said carts the necessary protection free of cost to them, and as the hucksters now occupying the sidewalks are encumbering the passage of travel on said streets, and also in justice and for the protection of the butchers of the city who have or will occupy stalls in said new market house;

Resolved, That the Mayor be instructed to have the market carts, including fish carts and hucksters, removed at once between Dock, Orange and Front streets, and Red Cross and Fourth sts. and the railroad bridge, provided the same can be done in accordance with law.

The yeas and nays were called and the resolution was adopted: yeas—the Mayor, Aldermen Myers, Vollers, Von Glahn, King and Lowery; nays—Aldermen Bowden and Foster.

A petition for a lamp at the corner of Fifth and Wooster streets was referred to committee on lights.

A communication from the Chief of the Fire Department, reporting the killing of one of the horses used by the Little Giant engine company, was referred to the committee on fire department.

DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC

W. P. HILL, Crockett Station, Tenn., writes: "DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC has done wonders here. A lady who had been doctored nearly to death for several years, has been cured of Debility and Great Prostration by the use of DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC, which raised her from her bed, where she had been lying for many months."

Dr. Harter:—Mr. James Brown of our county, has requested us to tender you his grateful acknowledgments for the great benefits his wife received from the use of your IRON TONIC. He tells us that, after having paid three or four hundred dollars doctors' bills, two bottles of your IRON TONIC did her more good than all other medicines she ever used. She was troubled with Derrangement of the Womb, Whites, etc., from which she is much relieved. CENTREVILLE, TEXAS. F. A. PATRICK & CO.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Diseases of the pulmonary organs are so prevalent and fatal, that a safe and reliable remedy for them is invaluable to every community. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and curative virtues of the finest drugs, chemically united, to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results, which enables physicians as well as invalids to use it with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has produced. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

The marvellous cures which AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results. An impartial trial will convince the most sceptical of its wonderful curative powers, as well as of its superiority over all other preparations for pulmonary complaints.

Eminent physicians in all parts of the country, knowing its composition, recommend AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL to invalids, and prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proved its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.

JEWELRY

$75.00 worth for $15.00

—) AND A (—

Solid Abysinian Gold Watch

FREE!

The above offer is genuine, although at first sight you would consider it impossible. We will explain: Since we first established our business here, March 1st, 1878, we have paid particular attention to the buying of Bankrupt and Auction lots of Jewelry and Watches, often buying at as low as one-tenth their value, and in no instance have we paid over one-sixth the manufacturers' price. Since starting we have always been able to dispose of these goods in Chicago and through our regular customers throughout the country at nearly regular prices, as fast as we could procure them, but owing to the large number of failures among the heavies dealers and manufacturers throughout this and other countries during the months of June, July and August (the time when the Jewelry business is stagnant), we have now on hand an immense stock of the most desirable goods we have ever handled and which we have bought at lower prices than ever before. In order to dispose of this entire stock in the most speedy manner possible, and make room for new ones which we shall continue to buy, we have hit upon the following novel plan:

We propose to give you a list of the most desirable of these goods, giving opposite each article its regular retail value, and sell to you at the rate of Five Dollars' worth for $1.00. For instance, on receipt of 50 cts. we will send you, POSTPAID, any article to the value of $2.50; on receipt of $1.00 articles to the value of $5.00, and so on throughout the entire list. Below we give a list of the most valuable of these goods.

Any Ten of the above articles will be sent by mail free on receipt of $5.00

All of this Jewelry is of a good quality, but, of course, the quality depends greatly on the price; for instance, the $2.50 articles are of a much finer quality and finish, besides being heavier, than the 85c. ones.

TO AGENTS.

For the benefit of parties wishing to act as Agents for the above goods, we make the following special offer:

On receipt of a $15.00 order for our Jewelry, as per above offer, we will send the goods ordered, and make the party getting up the club a present of any one of the following Watches:

1 Pure Abyssinian Gold Hunting Case Geneva Watch.
1 Pure Abyssinian Gold Open Face Geneva Watch, Stem-Winder.
1 Pure Abyssinian Gold Stem-Winding Watch, Illuminated Dial, by which you can tell the time in the darkest night.
1 Pure Abyssinian Silver Hunting-Case Geneva Watch.

Any of these Four Watches will be sent alone for $6.50, or the Watch and either a Gent's Heavy Abyssinian Gold Vest Chain and Charm, or a Ladies' Solid Abyssinian Gold Long Opera or Opera Guard Chain, for $8.00.

Agents who cannot send the full $15.00 at once can send small orders as they procure them, and when said orders shall have amounted to $20.00 we will send the Watch FREE OF FURTHER CHARGE.

Read What the Chicago Press Say of Us, And Send In Your Orders.

The Sentinel, of Chicago, Sept. 8, says: "We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of the Inventors' Agency, No. 116 E. Washington Street, Chicago. What the Inventors' Agency agrees to do they will do. The Sentinel has advertised for the concern since its first publication and we have yet to hear of the first complaint against it."

The Chicago Express, Sept. 3d, says: "The attention of readers is called to the advertisement of 'The Inventors' Agency,' office and rooms located at 116 Washington Street, Chicago. From personal inquiry and on the recommendation of the city press, we think our friends can do no better when wanting goods in that line. Give them a trial."

The American Stockman, Sept. 11th, says: "We believe this institution perfectly sound and responsible, and consequently persons need have no hesitation about sending for what they desire."

As to our responsibility we also refer yo to the following firms: Blomgren Bros., 162 & 164 So. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.; Miller, Wagner & Umbdenstock, 119 So. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

Before Ordering, Read the following:

All sums of money to the amount of $1.00 or over, should be sent by Registered Letter Money Order or Draft on New York or Chicago. We will hold ourselves personally responsible for any money sent as above directed. All orders under $10.00 strictly cash. On orders of $10.00 or over, $5 00 must accompany the order, and balance when desired, will be collected on delivery, but no goods will be sent C. O. D. to a greater distance than 500 miles. Any money received for these goods after the stock is exhausted will be immediately returned. Postage stamps will be taken the same as cash in any amount less than $1.00.

If on receipt of goods you are not perfectly satisfied, return them immediately in good order, and we will refund your money.
